

Game jam:

On the day ZERO, all the game developer exhibitors will gather up for a game jam challenge. In one day they are going to create a game which the jury and the gamers will select the first three contestant. The prize will be sweet as jam...

Gamers vs. Game Developers:

Can you beat the creator of the game you love? Do you want to challenge the developer to make the game a little more difficult because it is quite easy for you nowadays? Like to have a chance to meet with the people who is behind of the game you spend hours and days to play? It is now a chance to do it with Gamers vs. Game Developers event.

Workshops:

It is happening... You can meet with the people who will guide you how to create a game, how to team up with the right people, with who you need to contact to distribute the game all around the world and first of all, how to shape an idea to a reality. Don't miss this chance and join up to the workshops for your future... for the future gaming...

B2B Meetings:

You are a game studio. You are a designer. You are a coder. You are a gamer. It is now to meet with the right people to have a better chance to develop your dreams, to make it real. As the gamer philosopher says: "Dreaming is the half of the success and the other half is to join B2B meetings on Games Week Istanbul"
